

Chapter Four Gifts

The gifts you'll find below will help you to get even more out of this chapter. Reviewing the Spiritual Leadership Axioms from this chapter will help you better understand, remember and apply them in your life and leadership. Whether you are more in a Lazy River Rider mood, or tending toward Snorkeler or even Deep Diver, it's great to read through each. Then you can choose which is the best fit for you and get right into the exercises and opportunities to grow.

SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP AXIOMS

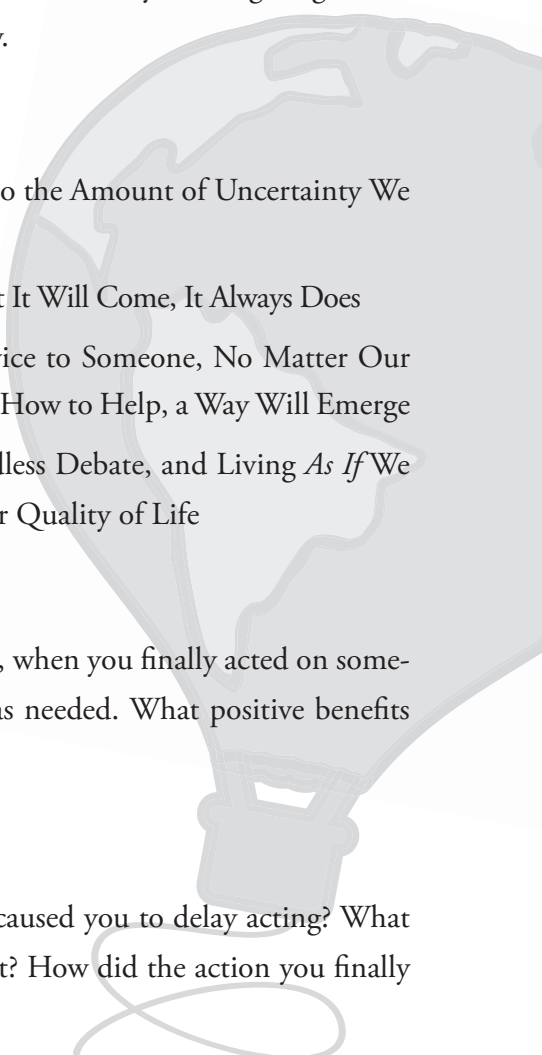

- Our Lives Grow in Proportion to the Amount of Uncertainty We Allow
- When We Ask for Help and Trust It Will Come, It Always Does
- If We Truly Wish to Be of Service to Someone, No Matter Our Fears or Doubts, We Will Learn How to Help, a Way Will Emerge
- Fate or Freewill May Be an Endless Debate, and Living As If We Have Freewill Leads to a Greater Quality of Life

LAZY RIVER RIDERS

Think back to a time, or to a few times, when you finally acted on something you'd known for a long time was needed. What positive benefits came to you from the action you took?

SNORKELERS

Write about that time. What initially caused you to delay acting? What prompted you when you finally did act? How did the action you finally took positively change your life?

DEEP DIVERS

Identify something you are currently tolerating that—if you're honest with yourself—you know needs to change. Then do something about it. Initiate an uncomfortable conversation. Declare to someone that you're making a change. Quit or start something today, or at least take the first irrevocable step.

Inspired now? No need to wait. If you're feeling it, now's the time to act. Go to TheArtOfSpiritualLeadership.com/Presents for reader's only inspired bonus material, to discover your unique Spiritual Entrepreneur Style or to schedule a complimentary strategy session with Daniel now.