

Chapter Eight Gifts

The gifts you'll find below will help you to get even more out of this chapter. Reviewing the Spiritual Leadership Axioms from this chapter will help you better understand, remember and apply them in your life and leadership. Whether you are more in a Lazy River Rider mood, or tending toward Snorkeler or even Deep Diver, it's great to read through each. Then you can choose which is the best fit for you and get right into the exercises and opportunities to grow.

SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP AXIOMS

- The Measure of Spiritual Leadership Is Comfort with Self
- Spiritual and Leadership Development Is the Ultimate Cross-Training

LAZY RIVER RIDERS

How do you feel about the Lapon-La quotation that started the chapter?

“Yes, there was one thing I was afraid of.

I was afraid I might lose compassion for [my torturers].”

— Lopon-La

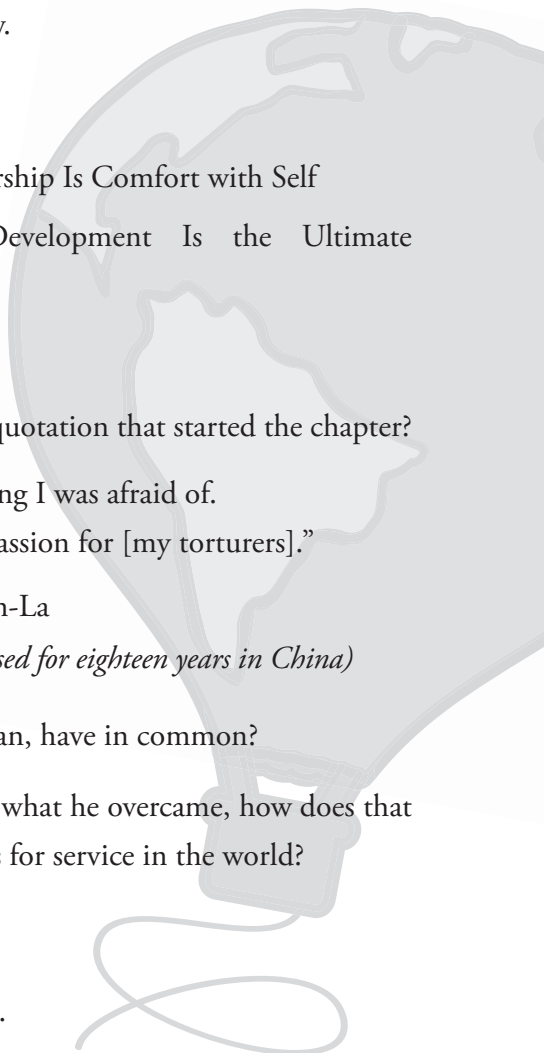

(Tibetan monk imprisoned and abused for eighteen years in China)

What do you and Anjani, aka Hanuman, have in common?

When you think of Viktor Frankl and what he overcame, how does that affect your opinion of your capabilities for service in the world?

SNORKELERS

Write about the above in your journal.

If you were to create ways of measuring spiritual leadership progress, what would be your metrics?

DEEP DIVERS

Do all of the above.

Consider some of the Dark Nights of the Soul that you've experienced. What were the most challenging parts and in what ways did the eventual sunrise become more brilliant? Write about this in your journal.

Write about the ways in which you are like Lopon-La and Victor Frankl. In what ways to they inspire you?

Inspired now? No need to wait. If you're feeling it, now's the time to act. Go to TheArtOfSpiritualLeadership.com/Presents for reader's only inspired bonus material, to discover your unique Spiritual Entrepreneur Style or to schedule a complimentary strategy session with Daniel now.
